Comprehension

Read the following passage and answer the questions given below: -

It is very difficult to say how far Gandhi was influenced by Marx. He himself claimed that he had read Marx. He wrote: 'I have to reduce myself to the level of the poorest of the poor. That is what I have been trying to do for the last fifty years or more, and so I claim to be a foremost communist.' The differences are clear on two points. First, while Gandhi rejected property as something antithetical to spiritual progress, Marx did not reject property as such, he merely rejected property based on exploitation and because it fosters inequality in society. Second major difference was around the problem of means. Though the entire tenor of Gandhi was against property, he too acquiesced in the institution, albeit reluctantly, by conceding one's right to earn property by lawful means.

Question Description

Gandhi's basic objection to property differed from that of Marx because unlike the latter, he saw it as being

he means of exploitation

the cause of social inequality

the hinderance to spiritual growth

earned by unlawful means
